About OldMonk

Hi am Jim Rooser,

Old Monk stands for the largest community the world has ever seen, the drunken community. There is in fact no second opinion to the sayings that drunkards or boozers are the most lovable and honest people in the world with benevolent nature and intentions. Our community represents the kind-hearted souls dwelling in different parts of the globe, yet united under one common banner, the Old Monk.

Beyond the drinking habit we share, our community serves humanity in varying realms. We endow commitments towards the world. Together we do many charity programmes, such as support children's education, build houses for the homeless, provide food for the needy and offer our maximum bits of help during this Covid-19 pandemic situation.

Here we raise our glasses to celebrate our unity and show our strength to the world.

Let's build the community together!!! CHEERS!!!

Jimrooser
